No Ordinary Time

Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today and forever.— Hebrews 13:8

The Church is now entering Ordinary Time and by ordinary we don't mean mundane. In Latin, Ordinary Time is called Tempus Per Annum ("time throughout the year"). It refers to that time in the Liturgical Year that is ordered or numbered. Ordinary Time falls in two segments; the time between the Monday after the Baptism of the Lord and Ash Wednesday, and the time between Pentecost and the first Sunday of Advent.

Ordinary Time is not a break or rest time in the Liturgical Year. There are many liturgical celebrations that fall during Ordinary Time – Trinity, Corpus Christi, All Saints, The Assumption of Mary and Christ the King. The Church also celebrates Saints days and other events during Ordinary Time.

Ordinary Time

Although we have these celebrations, the focus during Ordinary Time is on the mystery of Christ's life – those parts of Jesus' life that are much like our own lives. For Catholics Ordinary Time is the part of the year in which Christ walks among us and transforms our lives. It is a time during which Jesus calls us to be his disciples, his followers, as he did the original disciples. It is during this time that we mature in our faith and commit ourselves to the Lord. We also look during Ordinary Time to the life and teaching of Jesus to guide us as Christian stewards.

The life of a Christian steward models the life of Jesus. It is challenging and often difficult but, as with the apostles, joy comes to those who live as Christian stewards.

“all things work for good for those who love God” (Rom 8:28)
